Vital information

Jim lays out the key features of performance with integrity. Every point is illustrated with profiles of integrity in action – as it is and ought to be. They leave profound impressions.

“WE ALL WANT INTEGRITY IN ALL PHASES OF OUR LIVES, BUT NO ONE STOPS TO DEFINE IT OR TO EXPLAIN ITS ADVANTAGES IN EVERYDAY LIFE.”

—Former U.S. Senator, Bill Bradley

Jim's two speeches fill this gap. The training workshop is an ideal follow-up. It features actual incidents for audience participation and assessment. Jim guides attendees in asking if parties to the transaction exercised integrity, from which end? Was integrity ignored? Was the problem preventable?
